Standards Council Agenda Item:	SC#22-8-5-s
Date of Decision:	12 August 2022
NFPA 70®, National Electrical Code ®, 2023 Edition

Dear Interested Parties:

At its meeting of August 10-12, 2022, the Standards Council considered an appeal from Greg Woyczynski of the Association of Home Appliance Manufacturers regarding issuance of NFPA 70®, National Electrical Code®, 2023 Edition. Mr. Woyczynski sought Standards Council action to overturn the results of the voting Association Members during the NFPA Technical Meeting on Certified Amending Motion 70-95 (“CAM 70-95”) to Reject an Identifiable Part of Second Revision No. 7966. Specifically, the appeal requests that the Council revision of section 210.8(D) within the 2023 Edition of NFPA 70.

The Council having reviewed the entire record concerning this matter and having considered all the arguments put forth in the appeal, has voted to deny the appeal to overturn the Technical Meeting results on CAM 70-95. The Council further voted to issue NFPA 70, National Electrical Code, 2023 edition as amended at the Technical Meeting, recommended by the Code-Making Panels and Correlating Committee, and in accordance with Council decisions.

Council Members John Kovacik and Rodger Reiswig recused themselves from the deliberations and vote on the appeal.

Council Members Michael Johnston and Jack Poole were not in attendance during the August 2022 meeting and therefore did not participate in the deliberations and vote on the appeal.

*NOTE: Participants in NFPA’s standards development process should know that limited review of this decision may be sought from the NFPA Board of Directors.
