Make a Convincing Case for Home Fire Sprinklers

Home fires are a major problem in North America

Fire in the home poses a significant threat to the people of your community. On average, 2,500 people each year are dying in U.S. home fires. Further showcasing the enormity of this problem is that roughly 80 percent of all fire deaths are the result of home fires.

FireSprinklerInitiative.org
Visit NFPA's Fire Sprinkler Initiative website for more information.

NFPA

FIRE SPRINKLER INITIATIVE
Bringing Safety Home

Home Fire Sprinkler
COALITION
Protect What You Value Most

Educational content courtesy of the Home Fire Sprinkler Coalition.
*Data referenced by NFPA and other sources