Memorandum of Understanding between Metro-Chiefs and FEU
(supposed to sign in Boston)

Collaboration and Exchange of Knowledge

MEMORANDUM OF UNDERSTANDING between Metropolitan Fire Chiefs Association (Metro)
and
the Federation of European Fire Officers (FEU)

The Metropolitan Fire Chiefs Association (Metro) and the Federation of European Fire Officers (FEU) share a common mission of advancing the international fire service through the exchange of experience and information in the fields of Leadership within the Fire Service, Training and Education, Exchange Programs, Risk inventories and Analyzes, Disaster Relief & Rescue and related services.

Accordingly, the Metropolitan Fire Chiefs and the Federation of European Fire Officers (FEU), operating under this Memorandum of Understanding (MOU), agree to the following:

Attend and actively participate in the respective conferences and meetings of each organization whenever possible and to jointly advance the purpose and objectives of each organization. This can be done, if the opportunity arises, through commonly agreed projects and programs.

It is recognized that the ability of the Metropolitan Fire Chiefs Association (Metro) and the Federation of European Fire Officers (FEU) to perform any cooperative obligations requires that the participating parties provide their own funding sources and financial support. Each signatory to this Memorandum of Understanding is responsible for its own work and expense.

The above Memorandum of Understanding was approved by membership votes at the Metropolitan Fire Chiefs Association (Metro) conference held in and the Federation of European Fire Officers (FEU) conference held in.

Approved:
